

Resource Teacher: Literacy

Home Learning Options

The following literacy activities are not compulsory but may be of help if you'd like to continue some literacy learning at home. Rest assured, when schools reopen, your child's RTlit support will pick up where we left off. I am available to answer any questions or offer guidance via email or phone. Please feel free to contact me at melanied@newmarket.school.nz Thanks, Melanie.

	Phonics Teach Your Monster to Read is a fun online programme (also available as an app). It is free during current school closures.
SPELD SA Phonic Books Set 7 Bump Went The Bus 	Reading Decodable Text These are stories your child can read by 'sounding out' the words they don't know. Start with the easiest stories and see how you go from there. Keep it enjoyable, rather than a struggle. 	Letter Formation Practise handwriting the letters you have trouble with. These YouTube tutorials model formations for all lowercase and uppercase letters, and numerals.

Writing

Do a little bit of writing regularly. You may like to keep a diary together. Encourage your child to sound out any tricky words on their 'spelling hand'. If you're stuck for ideas:
